JOTTINGS

Perhaps the spectacle of the church presenting arms is not so inviting after all!--War is not sensible--William Henry Chamberlin speaks of this period as "the world's iron age." Max Lerner characterizes it as an "ice age." We are moving pretty far back into the past these days.--Why not banish booze from all military centers, all naval bases, all camps--and from Washington, which is the worst "wet" city in the country?-- New "war time" to last for the duration. How many people wondered: Shall I ever live to put this clock back to standard time?--Bring the soldiers home and put the newspaper experts and radio commentators in their places. 5

COMMITTEE

Perhaps the spectacle of the church presenting arms is not so inviting after all!--War is not sensible--William Henry Chamberlin speaks of this period as "the world's iron age." Max Lerner characterizes it as an "ice age." We are moving pretty far back into the past these days.--Why not banish booze from all military centers, all naval bases, all camps--and from Washington, which is the worst "wet" city in the country?-- How "war time" to last for the duration. How many people wondered: Shall I ever live to put this clock back to standard time?--Bring the soldiers home and put the newspaper experts and radio commentators in their places. 5

The "Star Spangled Banner" is on the program of entertainment--Perhaps Daylight Saving is not so smart as we think--We are now told that General MacArthur believes himself to be "a man of destiny"--Symbolical significance of the word "blackout"--Well, war does some good, after all! German cannon brought to this country after the last war, and set up on various village greens, to be broken up for scrap--Obviously "bellicist" is the word for Premier Blum. 37

Good--even in war!--Believe no news until it is at least a month old--Poll selects New York Times as greatest newspaper in the world--Trust the Quakers to stand firm!--Amazed and amused by the antics of so-called patriotism--Under Canon Law of the Anglican Church and of the Episcopal Church an ordained minister cannot bear arms. 54

Churches must fight hate to the end--World never really understood the nature of a jackal until Mussolini appeared!--The pendulum is swinging again in Libya--Hitler's ambition to have all the breweries of Germany making fruit juices and milk drinks sets one thinking about whiskies that flow so freely in this land--A desperate gamble!. 70

Anything so wonderful as turning on the radio? Yes, turning it off--Campaign for scrap rubber a good illustration of democracy at work in wartime--Rumor of a gentlemen's agreement between London and Berlin is obviously untrue, for where would gentlemen be found among the Nazis to sign such an agreement?--Extraordinary Quakers seem to be able to do what others cannot do--Correspondent reveals nature of his religion--What could be worse for our cause than that Adolf Hitler has given up his supreme command of the German armies. 87

Radio commentator calls bombing of Konigsberg "good news." I thought of Immanuel Kant and his Eternal Peace--There are losses in this war which I can stand without regret. Whiskey for example!--Another easily endurable loss is cosmetics--Still another loss in this war may be meat--We are indebted to Hitler for the Song of Bernadette! 102

Fosdick defines war as "an outmoded anachronism, an insane stupidity, the barbaric breeder of all the other worst evils that humanity suffers."--Many intellectuals are coming back to Christianity--The District of Columbia has the largest per capita consumption of liquor of any division in the United States--The word "pacifism" now appears in the latest edition of Webster's Dictionary--Unprecedented throng of visitors swamped New York on Labor Day Sunday--Touching is the worry of the Nazis over the preservation of democratic liberties here in America. 118

"It's me, O Lord, standin' in the need of prayer."--Lost: A Fascist dictator. Answers to the name of Benito--Churches classified by the fire department as "commercial buildings." H'm!--Why not follow Abraham Lincoln's advice and make sure that we are on God's side?--Inventors of the language evidently knew what they were doing!--Futility of retaliation never more convincingly demonstrated than by the Dieppe episode 134

The "Star Spangled Banner" is on the program of entertainment-- Perhaps Daylight Saving is not so smart as we think--We are now told that General MacArthur believes himself to be "a man of destiny"--Symbolical significance of the word "blackout"--Well, war does some good, after all! German cannon brought to this country after the last war, and set up on various village greens, to be broken up for scrap--Obviously "politics" is the word for Premier Blum. 87

Good--even in war!--Believe no news until it is at least a month old--Poll selects New York Times as greatest newspaper in the world--Trust the Quakers to stand firm!--Amazed and amused by the antics of so-called patriotism--Under Canon Law of the Anglican Church and of the Episcopal Church an ordained minister cannot bear arms. 94

Churches must fight hate to the end--World never really understood the nature of a jackal until Mussolini appeared!--The pendulum is swinging again in Libya--Hitler's ambition to have all the breweries of Germany making fruit juices and milk drinks sets one thinking about whether that flow so freely in this land--A desperate gamble! 70

Anything so wonderful as turning on the radio? Yes, turning it off--Campaign for scrap rubber a good illustration of democracy at work in wartime--Rumor of a gentlemen's agreement between London and Berlin is obviously untrue, for where would gentlemen be found among the Nazis to sign such an agreement?-- Extraordinary Quakers seem to be able to do what others cannot do--Correspondent reveals nature of his religion--What could be worse for our cause than that Adolf Hitler has given up his supreme command of the German armies. 87

Radio commentator calls bombing of Konigsberg "good news." I thought of Immanuel Kant and his Eternal Peace--There are losses in this war which I can stand without regret. Whiskey for example!--Another easily endurable loss is cosmetics--Still another loss in this war may be most--We are indebted to Hitler for the Song of Bernadette! 102

Poetick defines war as "an outmoded anachronism, an insane stupidity, the barbaric breeder of all the other worst evils that humanity suffers."--Many intellectuals are coming back to Christianity--The District of Columbia has the largest per capita consumption of liquor of any division in the United States--The word "pacifism" now appears in the latest edition of Webster's Dictionary--Unprecedented throng of visitors swamped New York on Labor Day Sunday--Touching is the worry of the Nazis over the preservation of democratic liberties here in America. 118

"It's me, O Lord, standin' in the need of prayer."--Lost: A Fascist dictator. Answers to the name of Benito--Churches classified by the fire department as "commercial buildings." H'm!-- Why not follow Abraham Lincoln's advice and make sure that we are on God's side?--Inventors of the language evidently knew what they were doing!--Futility of retaliation never more convincingly demonstrated than by the Dieppe episode 134

Advice to Ministers!--When we use violence we are violating something--How touching thus to read of the freedom of the Germans from the "fear" which dominates the Russians!--Perfect illustration of the blasphemy which war visits upon religion--Behold the difference between democracy and empire--When I look at the pictures of the Nazi leaders--. 150

The most beautiful word in the English language is "Lastly."--There are a lot of things that I am worrying about these days, but the limitation of salaries to a top maximum of $25,000 is not one of them--"If Hitler is a Machiavelli," a newspaper columnist writes, "why shouldn't Roosevelt be one too?"-- Having made the infamous Darlan our ally in North Africa, will we make the infamous Laval our ally when we get to France?--The one limitation on civil liberties in wartime--Is Gandhi's imprisonment going to run on indefinitely, like that of Martin Niemoeller?. 165

The English, the Russians, and the Americans have been magnificent in defeat. Now we are going to learn if they can be equally magnificent in victory--Let the church really give "fearless leadership" and what do people say?--"Anything that's fun is 'out'," says the Fuel Administration--Appointment of "Boss" Flynn as Minister to Australia--Is Mahatma Gandhi an important man today?--Why not face the Nazis with General Eisenhauer? 181
